Calhoun County Farm Bureau Scholarship

Description: The Calhoun County Farm Bureau is offering scholarships to help high school seniors in South Carolina pursue a higher education. The scholarship program hopes to encourage young people to develop the knowledge and skills to assume positions of leadership in civic affairs and public service.

Eligibility: Recipients must be a member of Calhoun County Farm Bureau and plan to attend an accredited four-year college, university, or an accredited two-year technical college in the fall. The scholarship is based on leadership abilities, extra-curricular activities, academic achievement, and participation in Farm Bureau activities.

Deadline: April 28, 2017 (Applications are available in the guidance office)
